When should you register?

Effective December 1, 2012, your company (if applicable) will be required to obtain an Intrastate USDOT number and display the number on all your Commercial Motor Vehicles in accordance with 49CFR Part 390.21 followed by the letters "NC" as described in GS-20-101.

How do you register?

Commercial motor vehicles may apply for an Intrastate USDOT number on the FMCSA website.

<http://www.fmcsa.dot.gov/>

Note: If you have been issued a USDOT number in the past but have been deactivated, you will need to go online and update your registration (MCS-150) to reactivate or to change your status from registrant to intrastate.

Applications instructions available on:

North Carolina Intrastate Commerce

Effective December 1, 2012, your company (if applicable) will be required to obtain an Intrastate USDOT number and display the number on all your Commercial Motor Vehicles in accordance with 49CFR Part 390.21 followed by the letters "NC" as described in GS-20-101.

Intrastate commerce means Trade, Traffic or Transportation within the borders of North Carolina. Determination of whether a driver/vehicle is engaged in intrastate transportation is made through examination of the shipping papers, labels on the freight, the driver's record of duty status (log book - if applicable), and responses to the appropriate questions.

Example of Intrastate Transportation:

Cargo originates in NC and the destination is another location in NC. The shipment is picked up in Greenville and delivered to
